

Hospitality Suite — Federal Employee Notice

Please read before accepting any food, beverage, or refreshment in this suite.

Why this notice

Domani Group is a federal contractor. Food and beverages served in this suite are considered a “gift” from a prohibited source under federal ethics rules when accepted by Executive Branch personnel. This notice explains the three lawful options available to you so you can engage with us in a manner consistent with your obligations.

Governing rules

- 5 C.F.R. Part 2635, Subpart B — Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, Gifts from Outside Sources (Office of Government Ethics).
- 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(a) — The “$20 / $50 exception.” Federal employees may accept unsolicited gifts (including food and refreshments) with a market value of $20 or less per source per occasion, and no more than $50 in aggregate from any one source in a calendar year. Cash and cash equivalents are never permitted as a gift to the employee.
- 5 C.F.R. § 2635.203(b)(8) — Items for which an employee pays market value are not considered gifts.
- DoD 5500.07-R, Joint Ethics Regulation (JER), Chapter 2 — DoD personnel are bound by 5 C.F.R. Part 2635 and by additional DoD-specific procedures and reporting requirements.
- 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g) — The “widely attended gathering” (WAG) exception requires prior written authorization from your agency’s designated ethics official. Domani Group cannot grant this authorization.

Your three options

OPTION A — Abstain	OPTION B — Partake within the $20 limit	OPTION C — Reimburse market value
Attend, participate in conversation and demos, and decline all food and beverage. This is always permissible under the regulations cited above.	Accept food and beverage with a per-person market value of $20 or less on this occasion, consistent with 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(a). You remain responsible for tracking the $50 annual aggregate limit from Domani Group.	Reimburse the approximate market value of what you consume. Pay by cash at the suite or via the QR code below . Under 5 C.F.R. § 2635.203(b)(8), an item for which an employee pays market value is not a gift. Retain your confirmation for your records.
